FIRE BURNS GARAGE ATTIC

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif. –Rancho Santa Fe Firefighters responded at 3:52 a.m. today to a residential structure fire at a home located in the 17000 block of Camino Brisa Del Mar in an unincorporated are of San Diego. Upon arrival, firefighters saw smoke coming from the garage and found a fire burning in the garage’s attic. The family was able to exit the home safely and no injuries were reported.

Preliminary estimates suggest $35,000 in damage and investigators are currently looking into the cause of the fire. Twenty-two personnel, five fire engines, one water tender, one paramedic unit, and two battalion chiefs from Rancho Santa Fe and San Diego responded to the scene. Battalion Chief Gary Snavely served as the incident commander.

The mission of the Rancho Santa Fe Fire Protection District is “To protect life, property, and environment through prevention, preparedness, education and emergency response.” Formed in 1946, the Fire District now spans approximately 42-square miles and protects over 21,500 citizens. The Fire District currently operates out of four full-time fire stations and serves the communities within and surrounding Rancho Santa Fe and 4S-Ranch.
