FIRE DISTRICT TO HOST FREE WILDLAND FIRE PREPAREDNESS SEMINARS

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif. — As we continue through the fire season, the risk of a major wildland fire occurring is still very real. In an effort to help prevent fires from beginning in the first place and to help residents prepare for a potential wildland fire, the Rancho Santa Fe Fire Protection District (RSFFPD) will be hosting a series of Wildland Fire Seminars throughout the fire protection district. Residents are encouraged to attend one of these free seminars that will address the issues and concerns specific to their community.

Those living in our Shelter-in-Place communities (4S Ranch, The Bridges, Cielo, The Crosby, and Santa Fe Valley) are invited to attend one of the following sessions, which will address issues specific to the concept of Shelter-in-Place:

- Wed., Sept. 26, 2007, 6:00 PM, Rancho Santa Fe Station No. 4, 18040 Calle Ambiente, Cielo
  - Thurs., Sept. 27, 2007, 6:00 PM, Rancho Santa Fe Station No. 2, 16930 Four Gee Road, 4S Ranch
- Residents of living outside of our Shelter-in-Place communities are invited to attend one of the following sessions, which will address issues specific to evacuation areas:
- Wed., Sept. 5, 2007, 6:00 PM, Rancho Santa Fe Station No. 1, 16936 El Fuego, Rancho Santa Fe
  - Mon., Sept. 24, 2007, 6:00 PM, Horizon Christian Fellowship Church, 6365 El Apajo, Fairbanks Ranch
- For more information on these free seminars, please contact Julie Taber, Public Relations Coordinator, at 858-756-6008.

The mission of the Rancho Santa Fe Fire Protection District is "To protect life, property, and environment through prevention, preparedness, education and emergency response." Formed in 1946, the Fire District now spans approximately 42-square miles and protects over 21,000 citizens. The Fire District currently operates out of four full-time fire stations and serves the communities within and surrounding Rancho Santa Fe and 4S-Ranch.
