FREE CPR CLASS OFFERED IN RANCHO SANTA FE

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif. — The Rancho Santa Fe Fire Protection District (RSFFPD) and San Diego Medical Services Enterprise (SDMSE) are teaming up to provide a free community CPR class in Rancho Santa Fe. The class, which is open to residents living within the RSFFPD, will be held on Saturday, April 25, 2009, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at Station 1, 16936 El Fuego in Rancho Santa Fe. While the class is being offered for free, an RSVP by April 22 is required. To RSVP, please contact Lorelee Olejnik, Community Relations Specialist for SDMSE, at 619-243-0200.

The mission of the Rancho Santa Fe Fire Protection District is “To protect life, property, and environment through prevention, preparedness, education and emergency response.” Formed in 1946, the Fire District now spans approximately 42-square miles and protects over 29,000 citizens. The Fire District currently operates out of four full-time fire stations and serves the communities within and surrounding Rancho Santa Fe and 4S-Ranch.

San Diego Medical Services Enterprise is a public-private partnership between Rural/Metro Ambulance and the city of San Diego. As the county’s largest ambulance provider, SDMSE currently serves the cities of San Diego, Del Mar, Solana Beach, Encinitas and the community of Rancho Santa Fe.
